The 30 Hour Famine is powered by World Vision, a leading Christian ministry serving people in need in nearly 100 countries. Every year, students around the world unite through the Famine to help feed hungry children—and to help families overcome poverty and injustice.

World Vision is a Christian humanitarian organization dedicated to working with children, families, and their communities worldwide to reach their full potential by tackling the causes of poverty and injustice.

30 Hour Famine: Students around the world loving God and fighting hunger.
